

Welcome to Kihonkai Karate Academy

1. There is an annual Insurance/ Membership you must apply for within 1 month of membership It is a legal requirement ,anyone over the age of 6 years must have insurance to participate in Martial Arts. You cannot Grade without MEMBERSHIP BOOK.
2. Belt examinations or Gradings, are every 10 to 12 weeks (on average). Cost £30 - £35 . The cost includes new belt (where applicable) and certificate. Students must adhere to the grading criteria on order to attempt an exam. Instructors will inform the students when they can attempt the exam. Gradings are held during normal class time and at weekend seminars.
3. Tuition fees are paid by Direct Debt on a monthly basis, The fee is paid on the 1st or the 15th day of the month. One months notice must be given if you wish to terminate the agreement. Late payment or missed payments will incur a 10% administration fee further missed payments will result in Membership and Licence being cancelled.
4. Parents are welcome to sit in during the classes but please don't get involved with the teaching or chastise your child. Many parents think they are helping. It makes the instructors' job much harder. Please keep the noise to a minimum. NO Phones please.
5. You are entitled to 1 month free training or a free uniform.

I hope that this settles any questions you may have, if you have any further advice, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Thank you and welcome to our Dojo!
